

Report Workers' Compensation Fraud

Workers' Compensation fraud cost employers and employees with real claims millions of dollars every year. Don't let someone else be the reason your claims are difficult.

Examples of Workers' Compensation Fraud:

- Claims made for injuries that didn't occur at work
- Employees claiming they are unable to work while maintaining another job
- Falsely reporting payroll to reduce premiums

To report worker's compensation fraud,
call the CA Dept. of Insurance fraud hotline number:
